

KEEPING BELLS AND RINGING ROOMS READY FOR RINGING TO RESUME

At present, entry to church buildings is severely restricted. This places our ringing facilities at risk of neglect. The more we are prepared to deal with the neglect once we are allowed back into our towers, the less the hindrance to re-starting our ringing activities.

An article in preparation will provide practical, authoritative advice on how to return to ringing after COVID.