

Photography and Filming Consent Form

Name of group:	LACR Young Ringers Lancashire Association of Change Ringers Young Ringers group (including the Lancashire Lads and Lasses Team for RWNYC)
----------------	--

The LACR Young Ringers group has been formed for youth members of the LACR with the objective of promoting good striking, comradery, and enjoyment of ringing church bells and social activities together. It also includes selection for and participation in the "Lancashire Lads and Lasses" team (3Ls for short) who may compete in the annual Ringing World National Youth Contest (RWNYC) and other striking competitions.

To promote the above objectives to a wider audience we are seeking your consent to be able to take occasional photographs and video to use as publicity material. Examples of where this promotion would take place include the LACR website, LACR and Branch newsletters, Ringing World magazine, Lancashire Ringers Facebook public group (<https://www.facebook.com/groups/Lancashirebellringers/>) ART (Association of Ringing Teachers) Tower Talk magazine.

A secret Facebook group has also be set up that is restricted to members and parents/guardians.

The team members may also want to take their own pictures, selfies, and videos during practices and socialising, and to post them on social media.

To this end, in accordance with safeguarding policy we are seeking consent from the young person (or the parent if the young person is under 16) for photographs, video or other images of each other to be taken and used in good faith to promote the above objectives.

We will take all steps to ensure these images are used solely for the purposes they are intended. If you become aware that these images are being used inappropriately you should inform us immediately (see contact details at foot of form.
